Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The local Association is represented at the Y. M. C. A. State Convention, held this week (16-19th) at Henderson, by Messrs. Will A. Bull, Harry P. Matern and John W. Reading.

The net proceeds of the Cantata given last week were seventy dollars. At their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday last the Board of Directors extended a vote of thanks to those who participated, and others who assisted, in making the entertainment so successful.

The third address in the "Loyalty" series will be given by Rev. Wm. Crowe, Jr., on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, in the Association parlors. Theme: "Loyalty to the Church." All men cordially invited to attend.

The address on "Loyalty to the Home," given by Judge J. P. Hobson last Sunday afternoon, contained much of practical wisdom and counsel, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the men present.

Senator Wm. Lindsay has kindly forwarded to the local Association a complete copy (nine volumes) of the Congressional Record, 55th Congress, second session, from December, 1897 to July, 1898. This record will prove especially interesting and useful, as it includes the debates and transactions of the Senate and House during the entire Cuban war period. Books for the library have also been donated by Rev. Wm. Crowe, Jr., and Mr. E. R. Clark. These gifts are appreciated by the Association.

1874—Remembrance—1899.

[More valued than presents of silver or of gold is this remembrance of a far away dear friend, who, but recently widowed, has turned aside from her sorrow to give expression to her best wishes on the occasion of our silver anniversary.]

Across my shadowed life the sunshine falling

Made memories sweet. I hear the echoes calling

The dear familiar names of thee and thine.

'Tis five and twenty years since

Cupid told

The tender story, new yet ages old—

If measured by the ruthless hands of time.

Dear friends, this wedding day hath

more of pleasure

Than all the past. Thy constancy

the treasure

Set as a jewel in a faithful, loving heart;

May the dear God spare thee my grief and tears,

Granting thee long life and happy

years

Which even death can never, never part!

Feb. 17, 1899. N. S. Cox.

If you have a cough, throat irritation, weak lungs, pain in the chest, difficult breathing, croup or hoarseness, let us suggest One Minute Cough Cure. Always reliable and safe. Tyler & Hemphill and W. McKee Hardie.

Be Sure to Buy One.

If you have not purchased a ticket to the Charity Concert Monday evening be sure to do so. They are only fifty cents and you surely can give that much to help the suffering poor of the city.

It Will be Admiral Dewey.

The Senate has passed the bill providing for reviving the grade of Admiral in the Navy, and there is little doubt but that it will pass the House. Should this be the case the President has already said that he would appoint Rear Admiral George Dewey to the place. Emphatically the right man in the right place.

"Pow'fully Weather Beaten."

It was rumored on the street Tuesday that a colored man named Ed Castleman, better known as "Hickory," had been frozen to death at his home near Bridgeport, and meeting another colored man from the same neighborhood, we asked him if it was true, when he replied:

"Naw, sah; dat a mistake. He wan't froze but he's pow'fully weather beaten, sah."

Big and Tender-hearted.

County Judge J. Dan Moore, whom every body in this county knows to be as big-hearted and tender as a woman in his feelings, has been nearly crazed by the terrible tales of suffering and want poured into his sympathetic ears by the crowds of people who have been pleading for assistance during the present severe weather. The county only allows him to disburse a small sum every month, and, as he saw that sum dwindling down and the demands increasing, it made him almost desperate.

He is a Christian gentleman and believes in that glorious truth that "he that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord." By his sympathy and kindness he has gotten close to the hearts of the people and has won their enduring love and confidence.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or is "just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. This is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles. Insist vigorously upon having it if "something else" is offered you. Tyler & Hemphill and W. McKee Hardie.
